

Agenda

Tuesday, 22.11

Innovating localisation

8.30-9.00 Welcome to the festival with Christina Dahl Jensen, Senior Innovation Advisor, DCA PAL

8.40-8.50 Opening remark in 'Why innovation is a priority' from Birgitte Qvist-Sørensen, General Secretary of DCA.

9.00-9.15 Why innovate localisation? A remark from Fie Lauritzen, Senior Advisor, Global Policy and Advocacy and Steffen Erik Mey Rasmussen, Senior Advisor, Development and Partnerships

9.15-9.30 Sharing the idea - An innovation case from Myanmar on innovative learning: SCLR Monitoring and Evaluation.

9.30-9.45 Challenging our thinking: Innovative learning and new ways of thinking capacity development with Veronique Barbelet, Research Associate with the Humanitarian Policy Group.

10.20-10.30 Critical reflection: Local solutions are often better, how do we support locally led innovation?

10.30-10.40 Sharing the idea - An innovation case on digitalizing the humanitarian response in CAR while fostering financial inclusion.

10.40-10.55 Ideation session for the innovation steps on localisation in DCA, facilitated by Learning Lab.

10.55-11.00 Closing remarks

Wednesday, 23.11

Food systems innovation

8.30-9.30 Tool session: Go, no Go matrix for ideation at conceptualization stage of innovative projects with Monica Alip, Innovation Advisor, DCA Uganda

9.35-9.40 Opening remarks with Christina Dahl Jensen, Senior Innovation Advisor, DCA PAL

9.40-9.45 Why innovating food systems? A remark from Mette Lund Sørensen, Senior Advisor, Resilience and Agro-Ecology

9.55-10.05 Ready for replication - An innovation case from Cambodia: Agroecology Live Learning

10.05-10.15 Challenging our thinking on food system transformation with IPES Food, TBC, International Panel of Experts on Sustainable Food Systems

10.15-10.25 Ready for replication - An innovation case from Uganda: Fresh fruit project

10.25-10.45 Innovating food systems through a multistakeholder approach with Tania Strauss, TBC, Head of Strategy and Global Projects, Food Systems Initiative at the World Economic Forum.

10.45-11.00 Plenary discussion

11.00-11.30 Breakout session

- How do we become better at taking an innovative food systems approach in our work?
- What elements do we need to innovate?
- How do we include gender, human rights, faith actors, civic space, and localization in the innovation agenda?

11.30-11.35 Closing remarks

Thursday, 24.11

Going Digital

8.30-9.30 Tool session: How to scale innovation projects with Monica Alip, Innovation Advisor, DCA Uganda

9.30-10.30 One hour of anticipatory action

Opening remarks with Christina Dahl Jensen, Senior Innovation Advisor, DCA PAL

Sharing the idea - an innovation case from Nepal: B-Ready Flood Forecasting System.

Explainer - What is anticipatory action? Faith Mitheu, TBC, Doctoral Researcher on Impact-based forecasting/ Forecast-based financing, University of Reading.

Challenging our thinking with David Jensen, TBC, Coordinator of the UNEP Digital Transformation Programme and Co-champion of the Coalition for the Digital Environment talking about the use of predictive analysis and modelling.

Plenary discussion How can we become better at innovating for anticipatory action?

10:40 – 11:40 One hour of surveillance tech and human rights - where to start?

Opening remarks

Explainer – How does surveillance tech impact human rights?

Sharing the idea – A case presentation

Plenary discussion - How can we become better at innovating in the human rights space?

DCA HQ reception

15.30 - 17.00 Celebration of 5 years of the Innovation Fund

Launch of the DCA innovation Learning Hub

Mini exhibition of innovation cases

Handout of booklet with innovation cases

WeFood drinks and snacks

